

Lincoln Service and Texas Eagle Service Changes Between Chicago and St. Louis

Effective on Select Dates Starting July 15 through July 24, 2015

As Union Pacific Railroad continues work to bring 110 mph speeds to the Lincoln Service, track and signal upgrades will affect Amtrak service, as follows:

Lincoln Service

July 15 through July 24 Service Changes

During construction, the Lincoln Service will operate normally between Chicago and Bloomington-Normal, and bus service will be provided to and from St. Louis, Alton, Carlinville, Springfield and Lincoln as indicated on the dates below:

Wednesday, July 15: Train 307 will operate to Bloomington-Normal, where provided bus service will be provided to St. Louis and all intermediate stations.

Thursday, July 16 through Thursday, July 23:

- All Lincoln Service trains will be cancelled between St. Louis and Bloomington-Normal. Bus service will be provided for all trains except Train 300.
- Buses representing Trains 302, 304 and 306 will operate on an earlier schedule. Contact Amtrak for bus schedules.
- Buses representing Trains 301, 303, 305 and 307 may encounter delays due to traffic conditions.

Friday, July 24: Train 300 will not operate between St. Louis and Chicago, and bus service will not be provided. Passengers can make reservations aboard other Lincoln Service trains.

Texas Eagle Service

July 16 through July 23 Service Changes

During construction, Texas Eagle service will be affected between Chicago and St. Louis, as indicated below:

- Southbound Train 21/421 will detour between Chicago and St. Louis from July 16 through July 23, and will not stop at any intermediate stations. Alternate transportation will not be provided. At St. Louis, the train will resume its normal schedule to Los Angeles.
- Northbound Train 22/422 will operate as scheduled to St. Louis. From July 16 through July 23, the train will detour between St. Louis and Chicago, and will not stop at any intermediate stations. Passengers on Train 22/422 destined for Chicago will remain on the train. Passengers on Train 22/422 traveling to stations between St. Louis and Chicago will get off the train in St. Louis and board a bus to their destination. Note: The bus will only stop to discharge passengers.
- Trains 321 and 322 will be cancelled. Passengers may make reservations on Lincoln Service bus/train services referenced above.
- Possible Delays: Trains traveling through the work area may encounter delays of up to 45 minutes.

We apologize for any inconvenience. For reservations and information, visit Amtrak.com, use our free mobile apps or call 1-800-USA-RAIL (1-800-872-7245). Thank you for traveling with Amtrak.