

Lincoln Service and Texas Eagle Between St. Louis and Chicago

Effective November 1 - November 10, 2015

As construction continues to bring 110 mph speeds to the Lincoln Service, bridge repairs being performed by Union Pacific Railroad will affect the Lincoln Service and Texas Eagle between St. Louis and Chicago on November 1 through November 10.

Lincoln Service

- Trains 300, 301, 305 and 306 will be cancelled. Passengers can make reservations aboard other Lincoln Service train/bus service options described below.
- Trains 302, 303, 304 and 307 will operate normally between St. Louis and Bloomington-Normal. Express bus service will operate in both directions between Chicago and Bloomington-Normal providing connections to the trains listed above. Contact Amtrak for bus schedules.

Note: Service will not be available at Pontiac, Dwight, Joliet, and Summit.

Texas Eagle

- Train 21/421 will detour between Chicago and St. Louis from November 1 through November 10, and will not stop at any intermediate stations.
- Train 22/422 will operate as scheduled to St. Louis. Starting November 1 through November 10, the train will detour between St. Louis and Chicago, and will not stop at any intermediate stations. Passengers on Train 22/422 destined for Chicago will remain on the train. Passengers on Train 22/422 traveling to stations between St. Louis and Chicago will get off the train in St. Louis and board a bus to their destination. Note: The bus will only stop to discharge passengers.
- Trains 321 and 322 will be cancelled during this period.
- Possible Delays: The Texas Eagle may encounter up to 45 minutes delay traveling through the detour.
